Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your intimation informing me that the Meeting of the Sub Committee of the Central Recruitment Board which was fixed for 20th inst., is postponed to 22nd inst., at 3 P.M. I will be in Bangalore in connection with the Dewan's Meeting on the 18th, 19th, and if necessary on the 20th also. Someof us may have to stay in Bangalore in connection with the marriage of the Dewan's daughter also. If the meeting is to come off on the 22nd inst., we will have to remain in Bangalore the whole of next week which is highly prejudicial to our business. Hence, if the meeting can kindly be postponed to some day in the next week, you will be greatly facilitating us. I myself feel very sorry for continuously writing for the postponement of the Meeting. Since the whole of next week will be occupied with the meeting and other connected things I have no other go but to request you once again.

Anyhow, next time, I will not raise any sort of objection and would certainly attend the meeting if it can be conveniently fixed on some day other than a Saturday, during the succeeding week.

Yours sincerely,
D S Mallappa

P.S.
I have no objection for 21st noon or morning. If this is accepted I may be informed in the Dewans meeting on 19th in Council Hall.
